Thank you for your service to OPV!

DUCTLESS HVAC MEETING

SEPTEMBER 6th at 7pm

Our HOA Chair has organized a "Show & Tell" meeting all about Ductless Heating and Air Conditioning units. There will be machines hooked up and running so that you can see and hear what they are actually like.

This is NOT a sales meeting. It is an informational/educational meeting about an interesting product.

Come see these machines in action, Thursday, September 6th at 7:00PM in the Riverside Room.

GOODBYE TO ANOTHER FRIEND

Our long-time neighbor and friend, Maryann Pierleoni is heading to the lovely Mary's Woods in mid-September. How nice for her. Maryann has been a wonderful neighbor, a community wide recognized volunteer for Lake Oswego Senior Center and a member of our OPV Board, just to name a few items on her busy, busy schedule. It's my guess that she won't slow down all that much once she gets to MW.

My favorite story about Maryann was when her darling black cat, Charlie, was MIA...and he had just had surgery and needed care. We all looked everywhere, put up signs and talked to every neighbor that we could find. No Charlie....one day the Recycle man told her that he had seen a black cat hanging around his place for the last week. We put a trap up at the site and sure enough...we trapped Charlie! And Charlie is fine and dandy to this day. Maryann, you were a great neighbor and we will miss you. MW's isn't all that far away...don't forget us! You too Charlie. Best of times to you at your new digs Maryann.

WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN

The big garage sale is over and lots of fun was had. Will and Dave made lots of "dough" and Resa did pretty well too. Over all, we had good weather and had fun together.

Special thanks go to Annie, Resa and Bridget for all of their work on the project. We had GREAT signs, mentions on Craigslist and even an ad in the LO Review! Thank you to everyone who participated.

Summer afternoon fun!

TEA FOR THREE

The weekend of September 14-16 Virginia Kincaid will reprise the role of Lady Bird Johnson in Tea for Three: Lady Bird, Pat and Betty at The Vault, 350 Main Street, Hillsboro. Flyers with details are on the bulletin boards outside the Riverside and Fireside Rooms. Tickets are available now from STAGES Performing Arts Youth Academy at www.stagesyouth.org. Our resident diva would love to see you there!

THIS GUY JUST CAN'T KEEP A JOB!

After 45 years in the Logistics biz., Gary O'Connell is finally retiring! His last day was August 31. Congratulations friend. You deserve to retire...let's just see how well you do playing Canasta, watching reruns of Matlock and eating dinner at 4:30! We all wish you congratulations!

THE RIB BONE'S CONNECTED TO THE ...

What a bash! Over 60 neighbors and friends brought their best side dishes, desserts and more. (Hey Sue...where were the meatballs? Next year!) It was great to see many of our new neighbors and pool crowd came out in force!

We owe a special "Thank You" to Will and David who drove to Vancouver to pick up the ribs (Uh...$200.00 less this year!!!) and to Cathi Lutz, Sandy and David for helping set up the room Saturday night.

We had to throw folks out after 8:00 PM but most of that was because everyone was helping clean up the room!

I send a special "thanks" to Tom Jackson for hauling all of the garbage out! (By the way...he works for food!!!)

We had a celebrity in the room...Rebecca, our Representative from Brightview, joined us as Sandy's guest. It was a total love fest between Brightview and OPV. Rebecca said that they have a fantastic relationship with OPV because of Sandy! Rebecca mentioned that their communications are easy and clear because of her! Good job Ladies!

The "Yellow Princess" also seemed to be having a wonderful time twirling and spinning. Please see her darling photo on the next page! Now that's an act looking for a stage to happen!

We saved one entire pan of ribs...hum.... Halloween is right around the corner...hint, hint, hint!

OH, HIS ACHIN' BACK

Poor Lauri Lindquist had surgery on his back last week...but he is doing very well! He had wires inserted into his spine and they will, in turn, help hold some of his pain at bay. We wish only the very best for his recovery. We want to see our friend Lauri up and around sooner than later. We think that his cat, Albert, is happy as a clam having him home all day long!
