Welcome Back!

We are delighted to share that we're starting up our newsletter again! We will publish once a month and need your help. Feel free to send in your ideas! Here are our regular columns:

Free Funk & Junk: Useful things you'd like to give away.

Here Comes The Bride: Wedding photos... can you guess the bride?

Meet Fuzzy: Photo of your fur baby.

Party Time Photos: Pics from your recent happenings.

Food For Thought: A good joke.

What's Your Name Again? Meet neighbors, new and old!

Meet Fuzzy: Mister

a.k.a S'mores!
Part Siamese, part domestic shorthair, Mary Beth's rescue was caught by a coyote and escaped!

She adopted him 3 years ago from Cat Adoption Team and highly recommends them for your next furry friend!

New in The Neighborhood

- Amy Reardon, Ebbe Arndt & Mercy Arndt, 5051 E
- Karen Bohart, 5054 B
- Nick & Nikki Galovich, 5055 B
- Marty & Corey Branam, 5056 H

ANNUAL MEETING

August 11, 5:30 PM

Riverside Room in the Clubhouse

Ellen Cowie, Kevin Apperson, and Thai Dang will be running again for the board and are asking for your vote. If you would like to nominate someone or would like to run yourself, please let CMI know.

CONCERTS ARE COMING

Every Wednesday Night through August

If you have friends wanting to park here, have them tell the gatekeepers who they're here to visit. Enjoy the music!

Food For Thought

I've never tried Yoga, but I have tried bending over to pick up my dropped car keys. I'm pretty sure I'd hate Yoga.

What's Your Name Again?

Emily MacKay, 5051 F

A former U.S. National Champion roller skater, Emily now channels that same passion into her career as the Marketing & Events Director at Oaks Park. She is the proud mother of two grown daughters, Annie (who just got engaged!) and Susie, and to her two tiny shih tzu fur babies. She loves reading, PBS, and has an incredible memory for music of all genres and eras.

Emily with her daughters and her puppies, Louis and Paco, enjoying a nice day at the beach!
